

TrainGreenSF

Office of Economic and Workforce Development

San Francisco: Building Tomorrow's Workforce Today

The "Green Sector" is a cluster of industries that support local green jobs development, including: green construction, transportation, landscaping, urban forestry, recycling-reuse and solar energy.

The TrainGreenSF (TGSF) Initiative is a network of employment and training programs coordinated by OEWD that are responsive to the workforce development needs of these industries.

Initiative Programs

Urban Forestry Program

Provider: Friends of the Urban Forest

Services: Classroom training and contextualized paid internships in Urban Tree Care

Population: Youth (14-18 years old)

Contact: Michele Palmer, 415 268-0780

michele@fuf.net

www.fuf.net

Gardening Program

Provider: San Francisco Conservation Corps

Services: Paid work-based landscaping experience through the Community Greening Garden Project

Population: Young adults (18-26 years old)

Contact: Troy Henry, 415 928-7417

thentry@sfcc.org

www.sfcc.org

Green Building Construction Program

Provider: Asian Neighborhood Design

Services: Contextualized General Construction training with an emphasis on green building practices and solar installation

Population: Young adults

Contact: Jamie Brewster, 415 575-0423 x201

jbrewster@and.net

www.andnet.org

Additional OEWD green focused programs include CityBuild Construction, GoSolarSF and RAMP-SF.

OEWD maintains ongoing research and development for programs, services and strategies that support the emerging labor market demand for skilled and sustainable green jobs and careers.

For more information:

Phone: (415) 401-4889

Website: <http://workforcedevelopmentsf.org/trainingprograms>